

Course title and number
Electronic Commerce – WEB-Engineering 1 (0488)

Course level
Graduate

Number of credits
6 ECTS

Period of registration via WWW
26 January 2009, 2 p.m. (Central European Time) until 1 February 2009

Instructor(s)
Gottfried Gruber

Schedule
Please check the schedule in the current Lecture Program.

Course objectives
This lecture provides basic skills for web programming. Further information:
Web-Engineering

Course contents (by teaching unit)

Unit	Date	Contents
1		learn@wu
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12

Teaching method(s)
Lectures, guest lectures, programming

Prerequisites and/or admission requirements
Knowledge of Java (this lecture is no introductory course)

Criteria for successful completion and grading
Written examination, homeworks
Each student should at least be familiar with Java and JavaScript at the end of the lecture!
Note: No introductory course! Basic Java knowledge is required.
Expect high workload if you are not firm with Java!

Availability of instructor(s) for contact by students
Office hours: Thursday 9.30 - 11.00

For administrative matters please contact
Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration
Institute for Management Information Systems
Institute for Information Systems and New Media
UZA II, Augasse 2-6
1090 Vienna, Austria

Telephone: +43 1 313 36 / 4443
E-Mail: wi-sek@wu-wien.ac.at

URL with further information on this class

<https://learn.wu-wien.ac.at/dotlrn/classes/weng/0486.08w/syl...>

Miscellaneous

Introductory and supplementary literature:

1Author:

Title:

Publisher:

Edition and year:

Chapters/pages:

Recommendation:

2Author:

Title:

Publisher:

Edition and year:

Chapters/pages:

Recommendation:

3Author:

Title:

Publisher:

Edition and year:

Chapters/pages:

Recommendation:

4Author:

Title:

Publisher:

Edition and year:

Chapters/pages:

Recommendation: